VOL. IV. NO. 8. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, JANUARY 9-10, 1898. PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

It will not be going outside of the range of reasonable probabilities to suggest that there are those in our midst who would be greatly comforted if our local judges could be brought to entertain the same view of certain questions held by Judge Murphy of St. Louis. A day or two since the police brought several citizens before his honor charged with keeping a pool room. Judge Murphy promptly dismissed the cases and in doing so said:

"Every time a citizen picks up a deck of cards or a pair of dice the police consider him guilty of gambling and want to rush him to the police station. I have repeatedly held that betting on horse races is not gambling. If evidence can be produced to show that these defendants have been guilty of running common gambling houses as charged, I'll continue the cases. But you can't convict them on that charge if they only conducted places where bets were made on horse races."

The detectives confessed that the only evidence they had was to show that bets had been made on horse races.

Barney Schreiber has named a few of the two year olds that Dick Williams is fitting for racing in San Francisco. Three have old fashioned combination names, as follows: Racevan, ch. g. 2, by Racine—Evangeline; Rosebeau, b. f. 2, by Flambeau—Fairy Rose; Loyabella, gr. f. 2, by Loyalist—Belle D. Then there's a promising bay gelding by Tenny, out of Fun in the stable.

Of the Atkin & Lottridge two-year-olds in training only one has been named. The lot is as follows: Baby King, b. c. by Islington—Visalia; chestnut gelding, by Islington—Nellie Van; bay filly, by Goldfinch—Hinda Dwyer; brown colt, by Midlothian—Angelique; black colt, by Duncombe—Victress; bay filly, by Emperor of Norfolk—The Truant.

ST. LOUIS'S 1898 STAKES.

In this issue of DAILY RACING FORM will be found the conditions of seventeen stake races to be decided this year over the fine track of the St. Louis Fair Association, and also of the St. Louis Derby of 1899. These events, entries to which close January 15, are well apportioned among the different ages and conditions of race horses, and are so liberal in terms that they will doubtless secure large entry lists and be productive of the best quality of racing.

The events for 2-year-olds are eight in number. The Debutante, four and one-half furlongs, $1,500, is for fillies as is also the Isabella, five and one-half furlongs, $1,200. The Kindergarten, five furlongs, $1,500 and the Ozark, six furlongs, $1,500 are for colts and geldings, while the Junior Championship, five and one-half furlongs, $2,000; The Brewers' Handicap, six furlongs, $1,500; Missouri, six furlongs, $1,500 and the Chrysanthemum, one mile, $1,500 are for all sexes.

The Memorial Handicap, five and one-half furlongs, $1,500, is for sprinters of all ages. The Golden Rod, seven furlongs, $1,500, is for 3-year-olds that have never won a stake of $1,500, while for the 3-year-old and upward division there are the Club Members' Handicap, one and one-quarter miles, $2,500; the Mississippi Valley, selling, one mile, $1,500; the Meramec, selling, one mile, $1,500; the Laurel Handicap, six furlongs, $1,500; the Independence Handicap, one and three-sixteenths, $1,500, and the Mound City Stakes, selling, one and one-eighth miles, $1,500. The Derby is so well known among the valuable 3-year-old fixtures of the western turf, that it is only necessary to state that its terms are $25 each entry, or only $10 if declared January 1, 1899, with $100 additional for starters, $3,500 added, one and ne-half miles. These rich stakes are commended to the earnest attention of western horse owners.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Entries of foals of 1897 to the National Stallion Stakes, a new event for 2-year-olds, to be decided at Morris Park spring meeting, 1899, closed December 1 with 335 entries, of which Mr. J. B. Haggin contributed no less than 99. It is a guaranteed event of the value of $20,000 and destined to be one of the great events of the future. The stallions represented are Knight of Ellerslie, Rayon d'Or, Ben Strome, Magnetizer, Pactolus, Chance, St. Blaise, Tammany, Inverness, Bathampton, Matt Byrnes, Sam Lucas, Montana, Meddler, Linden, Belvidere, St. Savior, His Highness, Ludwig, Executor, Order, Candelmas, Anchorite, Artillery, Bassetlaw, Darebin, Fitzjames, Fresno, Golden Dawn, Golden Garter, Gold Finch, July, Kismet, Midlothian, Preston-pans, Prospector, Salvator, St. Andrew, Sir Modred, Star Ruby, Tenny, Uncle Jess, Watercress, St. Leonards, Tournament, Chorister, Sleipner, Ormonde, St. Florian, Russell, Cayuga, Likely, Bramble, Kingston, Laureate, Potomac, Himyar, Masetto, Uncas, Faverdale, Kinglike, Juvenal, Galore, Albert, Hanover, Lamplighter, Pirate of Penzance, Strathmore and Onondaga, an array of richness domestic and imported, sufficient to promise great things to students of breeding problems.

Racing at San Francisco shifts from Ingleside to Oakland Monday with some important stakes to be run during the two weeks sport at the latter course. Two closed events will be decided Monday, the California Maiden, six furlongs, and the Golden Gate, seven furlongs, $1000 added each. Wednesday, the Lissak Stakes, six furlongs, worth $1250, will be decided and on Saturday the McLaughlin Selling Stakes, $1250, one and a sixteenth miles, and the Reliance Club Handicap, $1000, seven furlongs, will be the star events.

Capt. Sam Brown is credited with possessing some very smart 2-year-olds, the progeny of Troubadour, Stuyvesant and Blue Wing, the Troubadours predominating. They are at the old Bascombe track near Mobile receiving instruction in the way race horses are expected to go. The bay or brown colt by Troubadour—Senorita is one that ought to race with distinction if famous parentage on both sides goes for much. They will be shipped east in April.

California rumor has it that Col. Dan Burns and Thomas H. Williams, President of the California Jockey Club, have secured a tract of land at Pleasanton, Cal., and intend to build a race course of modern equipment upon it. The story is unreasonable outside the notion that such a course might be made to fit in with a summer circuit of Californian action.

The first foal of the year, at least the first heard from, was dropped at the Menlo Park Stock Farm at 12:10 on New Year's day. A little close on time, but luckily on the right side. He is a chestnut colt by St. Carlo, from Budd, and judging from present value of the Carlos was as nice a New Year's gift as Mr. Macdonough could wish for.—Breeder and Sportsman.

The good colt Gallivant is reported to be wintering finely at Oakley and to have grown into a 3-year-old as good looking as anybody's. He will probably make his first start this year in the Kentucky Derby.

The almost forgotten jockey George Taylor is living in St. Louis. A very fine rider before he took to lushing, Taylor has reformed and is trying for relief from the ban imposed on him for riding on the outlaw tracks.

Time, 26, 524, 1:05, 1:18, 1:314.

Winner—B. c. by Morello—Helen Scratch. Start good. Won easily; place driving. Imperious is a greatly improved colt. He was far the best. His forte is mud and he likes a route. He is Braw Scot's and Greyhurst's half-brother and a good individual. Glorian favors a hard track and was not well ridden. Prestar had vile luck. He ran honestly, is good and is best in mud. Was sharply cut off at start and on the first turn. Major Hooker was outclassed, but showed speed and closed stoutly. Watch him. Formella likes a fast track best. York and Texarkana ran poor races.

Scratched—San Antonio, 117.

3592 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 244, 50, 1:024, 1:1514.

Winner—Ch. g. 8, by Harry O'Fallon—May Kennedy. Start good. Won in a gallop. O'Connell was far the best. The going fitted him like a well made glove. Martha ran her race. She is game, is good and favors a route. Zamar was coming at the finish. He ran his race. So did Myth, who was outclassed. Scratched—Cash Day, 110; Lucky Dog, 115.

Overweights—Peril, 4 pounds.

3593 THIRD RACE—1 1-8 Miles. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 254, 52, 1:05, 1:18, 1:444, 1:574.

Winner—B. m. 5, by Rayon d'Or—Soney Lass. Start good. Souffle was far the best and won as she chose. The track was to her order. She likes a distance. So does Collins, who closed stoutly at finish. He was suited by track, but none too well ridden. Neither was Personne, to which the same remarks can be applied. Benamela seems to be but a sprinter and most uncertain. He is none too game either. Little Cripple sulked.

Scratched—Argentina, 105; Charley Reiff, 103; Perseus, 105.

3594 FOURTH RACE—1 1-2 Miles. Purse $400. Over 6 Hurdles. Handicap.

Time, 2:544.

Winner—Ch. g. 4, by Herald—Eileena. Start good. Won very easily. Viking was far the best today. He was lucky too. His race was far above the mark. Silverado was poorly ridden and ran a good race. Gov. Budd and Mestor were both poorly handled. Monita's race was not to the notch.

Scratched—Tobey, 125.

3595 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. The Shreve Cup. $1,000 Guaranteed.

Time, 254, 514, 1:034, 1:17, 1:434.

Winner—Br. f. 4, by Maxim—Fleurette. Start good. Won ridden out; next three driving. Fleur is a good filly. She was far the best in the going and overcame trouble at start and on the first turn. Tripping was next best. She was cut off at the start also and is in fine form. Schiller was closing fast at the end. He revels in the mud. Rubicon doesn't keenly relish a distance. He and Lucky Dog ran one another to pieces. Both moved away slowly. Morellito ran a good race and was badly ridden and closed stoutly on horses that outclassed him. Libertine was away badly and showed no speed. He had an easy race.

Scratched—Tea Rose III, 100; Grady, 110; Tom Cromwell, 114; Cash Day, 116; Thelma, 98; Traverser, 102; Bliss Rucker, 104; Judge Denny, 114.

Marks ran his race. Luis is not at his best in mud. He is good, a stout hearted colt, finished strong and can be tabbed.

Winner—Ch. f, 4, by Al Farrow—Fanny Gaines.

Off at first break. Start good. The first five were driving to the limit. Miss Al Farrow out-gamed the others. Springtime showed improvement. Necedah will be hard to beat her next time out. Jim Hogg got a bad ride. Mellie was coming at the end. Berclair seems to be of no account. He clearly outclassed this lot and his race must be thrown out. He was off badly and the going did not favor him. Con Reagan showed speed and will bear watching.

Off at first break to a good start. Won in a gallop; second easily. Ben Frost ran a wretched race. He can do better. Amateur tired badly in the final furlong. Banrica was cut off swinging for home. Dudley E had no speed. Dunster was short. Banrica ran well and showed a lot of speed the first half.

Off at first break. Start good. Won easily; second with something left after an early drive. Milwaukee came away without an effort in the stretch. Mazarin was stopping fast the last furlong. Dr. Sheppard ran a good race. He was conceding too much to Milwaukee. The pace was too fast for Evanatus the first part and naturally the old brute sulked. He is the worst kind of a betting tool.
